HACKNEY CARRIAGES IN EDINBURGH.

FARES BY DISTANCE.

The distance to which any hackney carriage may be driven under these bye-laws shall be eight miles from the Cross of Edinburgh; and the driver of a hackney carriage shall not at any time convey more than five adults in or on such carriage.

1. The fares for a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter hired from a theatre or other place of public resort shall be reckoned as from the nearest stance, when the same is within half a mile, otherwise the fare shall be computed according to No. 5 of this bye-law. The charges specified shall include going from the stance or stable to take up the party hiring at any point within half a mile therefrom, and waiting for ten minutes. Where the distance driven for taking up shall exceed half a mile from the stance or stable whence the carriage is taken, a charge of sixpence for every mile or part thereof shall be allowed after the free half mile; and if the carriage be detained before starting for more than ten minutes, a charge for waiting at the rate of 6d. for each quarter of an hour or part thereof after the expiry of the ten minutes shall be allowed.

2. There shall be no charge for waiting while a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter is on the way to a destination unless the waiting before starting and the waiting by the way exceeds in all ten minutes; and when such waiting exceeds ten minutes it shall be charged for in terms of No. 1 of this bye-law. There shall be no charge for a short deviation from the direct route.

3. The fare to any place not mentioned in the Table shall be the same as to any place mentioned therein which is in the immediate vicinity.

4. In the event of any new stance being appointed during the currency of these regulations, the fares from said new stance shall be the same as from the stance nearest to it, when the same is within half a mile.

5. When the fare of any particular place not mentioned cannot be ascertained by reference to a place in the immediate vicinity, the fare for any distance not exceeding a mile and a quarter shall be as follows, viz. :—

|                                                          |         |
|----------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| For any number of passengers not exceeding four . . .    | 1s. 0d. |
| For five passengers . . .                                | 1s. 6d. |
| And for every additional half mile or part thereof . . . | 6d.     |

6. When the party returns half fare only shall be payable, and the carriage shall wait ten minutes without any charge for waiting; if the carriage be detained longer, a charge shall be allowed for waiting, at the rate of 6d. for every quarter of an hour or part thereof, commencing when the free waiting expires.

7. When a hackney carriage is called but not used, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, if the place to which it is called be under half a mile from the stance or stable, and 1s. if beyond that distance. Waiting shall be charged for as under No. 1 of this bye-law.

FARES BY TIME.

1. The hirer may engage a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter by time when the same is to be used within the municipal bounds, for SHOPPING, MAKING CALLS, and the like, where the driving is not continuous, and does not exceed two-thirds of the time during which the carriage may be engaged. The charge in such cases shall be 2s. for the first hour or part thereof for any number of passengers not exceeding four, and 6d. for every additional quarter of an hour or part thereof. When five passengers are driven 6d. extra shall be allowed on the total fare. When the carriage is discharged at a greater distance than a mile from the point where the same was engaged, a charge shall be allowed for returning thereto at the rate of half the distance fare.

2. For an AIRING into the country within eight miles from the Cross of Edinburgh, and returning, and for continuous driving within the municipal bounds, in a hackney carriage not fitted with a taximeter, the rate shall be 3s. for the first hour or part thereof, and 1s. for every additional twenty minutes or part thereof. Unless the hirer wishes a slower pace, the rate of driving when a carriage is engaged by time shall be at least six miles an hour; and in the event of the driving being at a slower pace than six miles an hour, contrary to the wish of the hirer, it shall be optional for the hirer to pay the fare at the rate of 3s. for every six miles so travelled. The above rate is for four passengers. When five passengers are driven 6d. extra shall be added to the total fare.

3. Notice of the intention to pay by time must be given by the hirer at the commencement of the engagement, otherwise the fare may be charged by distance. The charges under Nos. 1 and 2 of this bye-law shall include going from the stance or stable to take up the party hiring from any point within half a mile therefrom, and where a greater distance is driven for taking up, a charge of 6d. for every mile or part thereof after the free half mile shall be allowed.

DOUBLE FARE.

1. Between 12 o'clock midnight and 7 o'clock in the morning double fare shall be allowed in the case of fares either by distance or by time, but this shall not apply to the charge for luggage.
2. There shall be no additional charge when two horses are used by the owner without being required to do so; but if two horses be used at the request of a hirer, the charge shall be fare and a half.

LUGGAGE.

The hirer of a hackney carriage shall not be charged for luggage under 100 lbs. in weight, but where it exceeds that weight, a charge of 6d. shall be allowed, and in no case shall a driver be bound to convey more than 1 cwt. of luggage. A charge of 6d. shall be allowed for the carriage of a bicycle, mail-cart, or perambulator. The driver shall assist in loading and unloading luggage in all cases when required, but shall not be compelled to leave the immediate proximity of his hackney carriage in doing so.

The Boys' Brigade was instituted in Glasgow in 1883 with 1 Company, 3 Officers, and 30 boys. It has grown into a great organisation, covering all parts of the kingdom, and numbering, according to the last returns on 31st May 1914, 1360 Companies, 6503 Officers, 2342 staff-sergeants, and 60,244 boys in the United Kingdom alone, not counting the great development of the movement in the United States, Canada, Australia, Cape Colony, and other parts of the world.

The Brigade has met a felt want, and has supplied a link in the chain of Christian work which had hitherto been to a large extent wanting.

Its object, in the words of the Constitution, is "The advancement of Christ's Kingdom among Boys, and the promotion of habits of obedience, reverence, discipline, self-respect, and all that tends towards a true Christian manliness."

This object is attained by banding the Boys together in Companies, under duly qualified men as Officers; by creating among them an esprit de corps, which gives them a proper pride in their Company, and a strong incentive to do nothing unworthy of it; by taking up everything that should enter into healthy Boy-life, and bringing it all under Christian influence and control.

James Gerrard, Secretary of the Edinburgh Battalion, will be glad to give full information to any one desirous of forming a Company of The Boys' Brigade.
